

Our Marking !

✓ Correct. ✓✓ Objective met ✓✓✓ You met the objective and achieved more!

The incorrect use of the verb or tense to be will be corrected "we was were" will be underlined with a ~~~~~ Magic line.

. Full stop needed.

once This means a capital letter is needed and not a lower case letter.

I went to the House This means a lower case letter needed and not a capital..

Sp in the margin or next to the word indicates a spelling error. We underline the word and write the correct spelling.

P in the margin indicates that there is some punctuation missing or that it has not been used correctly.

^ in the text indicates that there is a word or phrase missing. Reread it to find out what it is.

? in the margin indicates that a part of the text does not make sense and needs you to edit or rewrite that piece.

// in the text means that a new paragraph should have been started.

Th over an underlined word suggests the writer needs to use a thesaurus to find a better word.

A 'smiley' face means your work has been adventurous and the teacher is very pleased.

Mathematics

✓ A tick means your work is correct.

✓✓ A double tick means the objective has been fully met

✓✓✓ Three ticks mean you met the objective and achieved more!

C A c written next to corrected work shows that the teacher has marked it after you have corrected it.

. An incorrect answer will have a dot at the side of it.

One digit in one square

If you write your numbers round the wrong way these will be circled and the correct way written for you to see.

MWC

This means 'Marked With Child'. This is when we have marked your work together.

The bubble indicates the overall positive evaluative points and comments on motivation and effort

The block gives details of one or two targets for the next piece of writing that link directly to success criteria and pupil targets.